Be Well: READ A LOCAL NEWSPAPER

The Pancreatic Cancer Action Network issued a list of "Tips and Practices for Self Care" to help "your physical, emotional, mental and spiritual health" during the long-running pandemic. Among the actions listed under "Take a Break" was this practical advice:

"Limit your exposure to news and social media. Choose just a few trusted sources of news, including a local source to learn what is happening in your community, and turn to those media at set times — not all day.
Use social media to connect with people you don't get to see in person, but don't spend too much time on these platforms getting news and updates about the disease. Otherwise, it's easy to be consumed every moment of the day about the coronavirus as well as opinions and misinformation, all of which can be overwhelming."

Thank you. We Agree.
